

SheRACES Trail Series

SPECTATOR GUIDE

Sunday 5th July 2026

If you're supporting at the SheRACES Trail Series, this guide outlines some great spots to follow the event, as well as places of interest if you want to make a day of it, especially if you're coming with children.

---

Denbies Wine Estate

(10k, 25k & 50k)

<https://www.denbies.co.uk/>

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/ZtKxgXShGoxnD9ev6>

The site of the event start and finish. There is plenty to see, do and eat for all family and friends, including wine tasting, sparking afternoon teas, vineyard tours via train, a farm shop and a microbrewery (some activities require pre-booking).

National Trust Denbies Hillside /
Ranmore Common

(10k, 25k & 50k)

<https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/visit/surrey/denbies-hillside>

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/N8cie1NSJAaD2khTA>

All our athletes will pass through Ranmore Common at Denbies Hillside where there is a beautiful view across the valley towards Leith Hill (the highest point in Surrey and South East England). Park at Ranmore Common East Car Park (payable according to signage, free to National Trust members). There is often a coffee van based in the car park:

Newlands Corner

(50k)

<https://www.surreycc.gov.uk/culture-and-leisure/countryside/sites/visitor-information/newlands-corner>

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/EWR7rTnjS8bGNHPp9>

A popular beauty spot with a café, toilets and free parking.

---

Chantries Woods

(50k)

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/zmRCPvoRgEjeBWx6>

Free car park, within easy reach of Guildford (30 mins walk from Guildford train station – <https://www.networkrail.co.uk/rail-travel/our-stations/guildford/>).

Wander along the North Downs Way through the woods and you will find Golden Fords Café (<https://www.goldenfords.com/>) which serves coffee, cake and ice cream in a barn displaying works by local artists.

Cycle hire is available from outside Guildford Station.

Watts Gallery

(50k)

<https://www.wattsgallery.org.uk/>

<https://maps.app.goo.gl/2cbYwBgQKS4h9M6y6>

The turnaround point of the 50k race boasts an art exhibition, café and playground. Please park in the large gallery car park (£1 payable in the gallery shop) and not outside the Watts Cemetery Chapel. The Gallery currently has a William Morris exhibition The Art of Wallpaper, and discounted summer admission prices. The gallery is fully wheelchair/buggy accessible and there is a wide variety of food in the cafe from their specialty Welsh Rarebit to ice cream. Watts Gallery is also on National Cycle Network, Route 22, and there is plenty of cycle parking.
